This is a new organization and captained by Clyde Patton. He was not instrumental in the victory, however, as he lost his nerve at the critical stage and only rolled 106. The other members are Dr. Carey, John Sands, E. K. Smith and Chas. J. West. With two games each Capt. Patton was asked to step out and Milt Wedding substituted. The rivals won the last game by ten pins.

The Newark, Ohio, lodge of Elks will hold a street fair and carnival June 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10. This lodge, although a little over a year old, has already gained the reputation of being one of the best lodges in the State. Great preparations are being made by the committee, and everything points to one of the most successful fairs ever held.

The business men have taken hold of the project and are enthusiastically helping push the fair. A street one half mile in length has been secured, the space for booths has nearly all been taken, and everything is going along with a rush.

The committee has secured attractions which will be worth going miles to see. The Midway will be equal to the Midway at the World's Fair, which attracted so much attention.

Among the attractions will be the "Streets of India," the "Oriental Theatre," "Japanese Theatre," "Moorish Theatre," "Trained Wild Animal Show," and the "American Theatre," representing our new possessions, peopled with Cubans, Porto Ricans and Filipinos.

Every day will be a big day. The whole week will be one jolly week. Excursions will be run on all railroads.

Mayor Atherton will turn the keys of the city over to the Elks for the week, and if you want to be entertained and have a jolly good time, attend the Elks street fair and carnival at Newark, Ohio.
